Ride 4 Heroes Memorial Ride and Benefit Auction

In Memory of two local heroes who lost their lives in a vehicle accident:

Todd Sielaff and Joe Rockwell

Both were dispatchers at Elbert County Communications.

Todd was a volunteer firefighter with Simla Fire Department.

Joe was a Vietnam Veteran.

Both were fathers. Both were friends. Both were heroes.

Event:

Motorcycle ride enjoying beautiful Elbert County to conclude with a benefit auction, food and live music at the Stagecoach in Franktown! Come one, come all, you don't need to own a bike to participate! Mark your calendar! We are also looking for donations of items or services for the benefit auction!

Contact: ffpeanuts411@aol.com to be added to the email list, for questions or to add your name or business to our donor list!

Website coming soon with info on Todd and Joe, ride details and updates, as well as our growing list of auction items and sponsors!
